

Something's Not Right

VERSE 1 (Girl 1)

It's got to be a joke

He seemed a decent bloke

I don't why but

Everything that's happening doesn't quite fit the ring

(Girl 2)

It sort of does make sense

He did seem kind of dense

Jesse don't you act a fool

Psycho guys aren't good for you

(Jesse)

I wish he would tell me why

CHORUS

(Jesse)

Everything I need is not where it should be

The whole world is upside down I can hardly see

The highs are the lows and the yes is the no so

Something's not right, here

VERSE 2

(Guy 1)

Dude what's going on

All your laughs gone

You're not yourself

You haven't showered in 3 days

And we can tell ||

Greg: That's okay

(Guy 2)

Remember the fourth game of the season?

We were down by three bases loaded

9th inning you were up at bat

Music The ball flew high across the sky

And we thought we would never die

Let's go back to those days

Everything I need is not where it should be
The whole world is upside down and I can hardly see
The highs are the lows and the yes is the no so

(Templeton)

Ugh she makes me sick
All her little tricks
If only he would give me
All of the attention

(Other templetons)

She thinks she's such a gift
She's leading him adrift

(Main Templeton)

Silence let me think
I've got to make him sink
If Greg wants to truly rule
I'll let him think he wrote the rules

CHORUS

(Templeton Victoriously)

Everything I need is right where it should be I'll turn his world upside down yes I will surely win
The highs are the lows and the yes is the no so
Something's not right here

(Everyone)

Everything I need is not where it should be
The whole world is upside down and I can hardly see
The highs are the lows and the yes is the no so
Something's not right x3 Here
